Electrical Sources:

Full-text articles from online databases: According to Writing Intensive (2009), “for an online scholarly journal, include the periodical title (italicized), volume and issue numbers, and inclusive page numbers or n. pag. Conclude with the medium and access date” (p. 127).

Film or Video Recording:

Begin with the italicized title, followed by director, distributor (usually the production company) and the year of release. The distributor is similar to the publisher for a print source. The MLA Handbook, 6th edition, also indicates that you may include “other data that seems pertinent – such as the as the names of the writer, performers, and producer – between the title and the distributor” (section 5.8.3, p. 198).
